

winning, get Rams in pur-

Campbell said when asked about the offensive turnaround. "We crack

Washington Post 10/23/09

MARYLAND

GAMES TO WATCH

Churchill

at No. 19 Sherwood, 6:30

Churchill (7-0) will try to keep its record unblemished against its first opponent with a winning record since the second week of the season. QB Alex Kantor leads an offense that has scored at least 30 points in five straight games, and RB Ryan Quinn (894 yards) is coming off his fifth 100-yard game. They will face a Sherwood defense, led by LB Phil Durity and DE Greg Grant, looking to redeem itself after the Warriors' 20-game winning streak ended last week. Sherwood (6-1) is trying to avoid consecutive losses for the first time since October 2003.

Seneca Valley

at No. 6 Quince Orchard, 6:30

Since losing its first two games for the first time in 30 years, Seneca has won five straight, as its young skill-position players — QB Max Nicholson, RB Edward Cunningham and WR Dmitri Parker — have come into their own. Quince Orchard (7-0) is

GAMES TO

West Spr
at W.T. W

W.T. Wood
game win
longest in sits atop t er point
allowed
four-gam
season-hi
sophomo
win at T.
West Spr
termined
Spartans
made 7 c
45 yards

Chantil

With wi
the past
on a ro cluded less. If field w Northe
power
win to Chanti

er Coolidge
ould all but erscholastic
est Division
ry over Dun-
layed in 11
he key to the plicity to slow
, whose 808
OCIAA. Dun-ht, but hasn't e its season-ip Collegiate.

od Counsel.

Washington (ference) have eeks, losing to ara and No. 1
y face another
l Counsel (6-1,
after its stum-
epeating Paul VI
eek. It's a good
unning backs:
Charles Brown