

(9), and Robin urn to lead the Sherwood and s, respectively.
nd Bouey were land Baseball
Pre-Season All-
nebaum returns

season All-State eds to have a big d at the plate for
" said Trojans
, whose ace will ohn Hallock (1-own Prep each alented starters.

and Peirce urlers atop the Rob Tatum and were All-Inter-ce performers a loyas.

also helped by sides of college.
Blair's four-year
ing recruited by al Academy and te of Technol-Austri. Richard
next year.
nd Whitman lie
the two poles.

Ryan, who led state final, but 3-1, 2.10), who wise inexperienced most of last ry but returned win in the state st Linganore.
one of the top
(but) how well

■ Bethesda-Chevy Chase Barons

2009 record: 9-8

Players to watch: P Adam Levine, OF Matt Fiedelholz, OF Casey Fitzgerald Outlook: "I think that we have the talent and work ethic to surprise a lot of teams." — John Schmidt

■ Bullis Bulldogs

2009 record: 5-14

Players to watch: 1B Harrison Farmer, C/OF/P Jack Simons, P/SS Kevin
Tenebaum Outlook: "We have more depth on our pitching staff this year, which will help us immensely." — Brian Lumpkin

■ Churchill Bulldogs

2009 record: 6-11

Players to watch: 1B/P/OF Harris Fananoff, P/C/SS Bryce Shemer, P/OF Jameson McGrane Outlook: "In order to improve on last year's record, it will take a total-team effort." — Scott Blackwood

■ Good Counsel Falcons

2009 record: 11-10

Players to watch: CF/P George Smith, OF Kyle Porter, 2B/P Nick Trotta Outlook: "I'm looking to get the whole thing. We have a very strong team."
— John McGowan

■ Walter Johnson Wildcats

2009 record: 10-8

Players to watch: P/SS Robin Mowat, C

we do will depend on who else steps up on the mound for us," Quince Orchard coach Jason Gasaway said.

The Vikings graduated the hard-working, inning-eating Ethan Thompson (4-4, 2.27) but return a strong combination in Reid Kellam (4-0, 2.69) and

FAST FACTS: BASEBALL 2010

Carson Kenney, P/3B/SS Mac Gill Outlook: "I have some concern with pitching depth because of injury [but] I really like this team." — Kim Ahearn

■ Landon Bears

2009 record: N/A

Players to watch: C/OF Keegan Dolan, CF Cal
Richards, LHP/OF Joe Barlia, P John
Lewycky
Outlook: "We have pretty good team speed and several guys that may not have overpowering stuff but... can keep us in games on the mound." — Drew Johnson

■ Magruder Colonels

2009 record: 7-10

Players to watch: OF Matt Luber, SS Andrew Daskalakis, 1B/OF Sean Weddell Outlook: "These kids have been playing together for a while and know each other very well." — Matt Avery

■ Richard Montgomery Rockets

2009 record: 5-10

Players to watch: SS Kyle Silver, P/OF J.P.
Hoover, 2B Steve Kinderman Outlook: "There's a good nucleus there and they're pretty dedicated baseball kids.
We're hoping to turn things around." —
Bill Wright

■ Quince Orchard Cougars

2009 record: 17-5

Players to watch: P Brett Sliwiak, 3B/P Greg Price, SS Frank Barkanic, CF Tommy McCartin Outlook: "Brett Sliwiak is one of the top pitchers in the county. How well we do

Michael Flack (3-0, 3.11). Flack, a sophomore, looks poised to be one of the best all-around players in the county.

"Kellam and Flack should lead the way on the mound, but we will also have seniors Ross Olchyk, Sam Sharpe, and Dan Shanahan trying to get will depend on who else steps up on the mound for us." — Jason Gasaway

■ Rockville Rams

2009 record: 7-7

Players to watch: C Chris Brown, SS/P Chris Osgood, OF/P Sean Van Gieson, OF/P
Danny Moroney Outlook: "We just need some early success to get us going. ... We start out with five of our first seven games against 4A schools."
— Farron Riggs

■ Sherwood Warriors

2009 record: 10-6

Players to watch: P Will Bouey, SS Brad Bolan, 1B Gary Mullings
Outlook: "I like these guys. Most of the started last year as sophomores." — Billy Goodman

■ Whitman Vikings

2009 record: 14-4

Players to watch: P/3B Michael Flack, C Danny Lee, P Reid Kellam Outlook: "We need to find ways to score runs.
I think we will have guys who can throw strikes when they pitch, and we will play good defense." — Joe Cassidy

■ Wootton Patriots

2009 record: 13-5

Players to watch: P/RF Max Simon, SS Alex
Kelly, P/3B Alex Hindman Outlook: "We have a lot of pitching but we don't have anybody who can blow it by anybody, so defense has to be a big key for us." — J.D. Marchand innings on the mound," Whitman coach Joe Cassidy said. "Junior Ross Peterson and sophomore Ryan McGill will also push for innings, so we have kids who throw strikes. We just need to find the best kids at getting people out."