Jamal Olasewere, who led Springbrook to the 4A state title earlier this month, headlines a group of four county players who have been selected to participate in the 36th annual Capital Classic High School All-Star basketball game.

The game will be played April 9 at Bender Arena on the campus of American University in Northwest Washington.

Landon senior Christian Webster and Montrose Christian seniors Mouphtaou Yarou and Isaiah Armwood have also been chosen for the game. Former Montrose Christian standout Tristan Spurlock, who played this season at Word of Life Christian Academy, has also been selected to the Capital All-Stars 12-man roster.

Five county players will be represented in the preliminary game including Bruce Massey (Seneca Valley), Chase Hicks (Churchill) and Stephen Griffin (Paint Branch) who will compete for the Suburban All-Stars. Meanwhile, Good Counsel's Ricardo Gaddy and Georgetown Prep's Robert Olson have been selected to play for the District All Stars.
